NOTES:

8-week classes -- If your class time is NOT listed then you need to give your exam on the last scheduled day of class.

12-week classes -- If your class time is NOT listed then you need to decide when you will give your exam during exam week and inform your students at the beginning of the semester.

For all terms – If you have room conflicts with another instructor then one of the instructors will need to request another room. If your students have a conflict due to another exam overlapping with yours then you will need to schedule your exam to accommodate all students or make arrangements with the students that are affected.
